A. Deceased is a member, former member, affiliate member, or friend of the congregation of RPC

Church Contacts and Pastoral Care

- In the event of a death of a member, former member, affiliate member, or friend of the congregation of RPC, the family or caregiver should contact the minister or interim pastor. If such clergy is unavailable, contact should be made with the Clerk of Session directly or through the church administrator.
- Pastoral care will be provided for the family of the deceased by an ordained minister for the counseling of the bereaved. The minister will advise the family concerning the arrangement of an appropriate worship service and will make suitable arrangements with them.
- Consultation with a funeral home will be the responsibility of the family.
- The family must fill out a Request for Facility Use form.

Church Facility and Music

- Use of the church facilities for funeral and memorial services is a vital ministry for the congregation; such use may be without cost to the family. (A clean-up fee of $50 may be imposed.)
- The date and time of the service should to be coordinated with other necessary functions previously scheduled. Besides the availability of the minister, consent of the music director and participating musicians should be obtained.

Sanctuary Flowers

- Flower arrangements for the sanctuary will be the responsibility of the family.
- Nothing is to be placed on the Communion table. If desired, the family may remove the Communion table and replace it with a table that can be used for their purposes, e.g., to display flowers or pictures.

Refreshments or Meal Catering

- Refreshments (not a meal) may be served following the service if the family desires. The Congregational Life Ministry Team will be responsible for coordination and preparation.
- If the family wishes to have a meal following the service, they should make their own arrangements. The Fellowship Hall and Kitchen may be used for this purpose. Family should make arrangements for furniture set-up and take-down, and clean-up of the Fellowship Hall and Kitchen.

Use of Cemetery

- The family will be directed to the chairperson of the Cemetery Committee for information regarding possible use of the cemetery, including the cost of standard burial and cremation plots.

B. Deceased NOT a member, former member, affiliate member, or friend of the congregation of RPC

- When the deceased is not a member, former member, affiliate member, or friend of the congregation of RPC, procedures for contacting the minister and scheduling are the same as stated in Section A above.

- The RPC Member Sponsor identified on the Request for Facilities Use Form will be responsible for opening and closing the facility, furniture set up and take-down, and ensuring the cleanup of all rooms used.
- If refreshments are desired after the service, these should be arranged by the family, not the Congregational Life Ministry Team.
